Completing the Application Form

A completed Application Form received by CIML is an instruction to invest in the JANA Diversified Infrastructure Trust and the accompanying Application Monies must be received at least 10 Business Days prior to the last Calendar Day of each month.

This Application Form relates to the IM dated 8 December 2021 issued by CIML. Please read the IM in full before completing the application form.

Once you have completed the Application Form, please read the Declaration and Authorisation and have the form signed by the authorised signatories and then return the completed form to CIML Client Services. Application Monies should be sent by electronic transfer to the Trust's application account noted in this application form.

For an Application Form to be valid, it must be correctly completed and it must comply with the designated minimum investment amounts and be appropriately signed by the applicant(s). However, CIML may, at its discretion, accept amounts less than the minimum initial investment amounts.

Key information regarding the application process is set out below:

Application Dealing Day	The effective day on which units are recorded against the investor in the unit register which will be on the last Calendar Day of each month or more frequently as determined by CIML.
Application form	Investors wishing to apply for Units in the Trusts must submit an application form at least 10 Business Days prior to the Application Dealing Day unless otherwise determined by CIML.
Application Monies	Cleared funds must be in the application account no later than 10 Business Days prior to the Application Dealing Day unless otherwise determined by CIML.

be held by us in a non-interest bearing trust account for up to 30 days (while we endeavour to verify your identification information or obtain any necessary outstanding information) after which we will return the Application Monies to you. No interest is received on Application Monies, including monies for additional investments, and no interest will be paid to you if for any reason your application can not be accepted.

We reserve the right not to accept (wholly or in part) any Application for any reason or without reason. If we refuse to accept an Application Form, any monies received from you will be returned to you without interest.

Tax File Number

Investors have the choice of whether or not to quote their Tax File Number (TFN) when opening a Trust investment account. The investor does not have to quote a TFN, but it is a requirement of relevant taxation laws that CIML will withhold tax (plus Medicare levy) from income distributions to the investor if they have not quoted their TFN or provided appropriate exemption information. Collection of TFN information is authorised and its use and disclosure are strictly regulated by the taxation laws and the Privacy Act. If you are exempt from quoting a TFN, please quote the equivalent ATO code in the TFN space provided (e.g. Aged pension is 444 - 444 - 441).

Additional applications

If you are an existing unitholder in the Trust you may apply for additional Units by completing the Additional Unit Application Form. The application process will be subject to the process and timings of your original investment (set out previously). The additional investment amount will be added to your existing investment in the Trust. Please insert your investor number, name and personal details as well as your additional investment amount into the spaces provided on the form. Please read the Declaration and Authorisation and have the form signed by the authorised signatories and then return the completed form to us. Additional Application Monies should be sent by electronic transfer to the Trust's application account noted on the Application Form.

Incomplete applications

If, for any reason, we are unable to process your application (for example, the Application Form is incomplete or incorrectly completed or we are not satisfied that we have received the necessary proof of identification requirements to meet our obligations under AML/CTF Requirements as set out in the Application Form, the Application Monies will

Privacy

CIML has a Board approved privacy policy. We collect and manage your personal information in accordance with this policy, the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles ('APP').

CIML may collect personal information from you in the application form and any other relevant forms in order to process your application, administer your investment and for other purpose permitted under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Tax, company and anti- money laundering law also require some of the information to be collected in connection with an application. In some cases, we collect personal information from third parties including public sources, our related companies, referrers, brokers, agents, your adviser(s) and our service providers.

If you do not provide us with your relevant personal information, we will not be able to provide you with products or services (such as issuing you units).

Privacy laws apply to our handling of personal information and we will collect, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with our privacy policy, which includes details about the following matters:

- the kinds of personal information we collect and hold;
- how we collect and hold personal information;
- whether collection is required or authorised by law;
- the purposes for which we collect, hold, use and disclose personal information;
- the entities or persons to which personal information is usually disclosed;
- how you may access personal information that we hold about you and seek correction of such information (note that exceptions apply in some circumstances);
- how you may complain about a breach of the APPs, or a registered APP code (if any) that binds us, and how we will deal with such a complaint;
- whether we are likely to disclose personal information to overseas recipients and, if so, the countries in which such recipients are likely to be located if it is practicable for us to specify those countries.

Personal information is unlikely to be disclosed to any third parties overseas.

CIML may also be allowed or obliged to disclose information by law. If an investor has concerns about the completeness or accuracy of the information CIML has about them or would like to access or amend personal information held by CIML, they can contact CIML's Privacy Officer at:

Power of Attorney

If signing under a power of attorney, you are certifying that the power of attorney has not been revoked (a certified copy of power of attorney must be submitted with this application unless it has already been sighted). For the purposes of anti- money laundering compliance, the attorney must complete the same identification requirements as an individual (see PART E – Section A).

Anti-Money Laundering/ Counter Terrorism Financing

The prevailing AML Requirements require that the identity of an investor is verified. Without this information we may not be able to deal with you and monies cannot be paid to you if and when investments are realised. CIML may require additional information to verify the identity of an investor, any underlying owner of units in a fund or beneficiary of a trust and the source of any payment. Where we request such information from you, processing of new applications may be delayed until the requested information in a satisfactory form is received.

Politically Exposed Persons

In accordance with the AML Requirements, we are required to ask you whether you are a politically exposed person ('PEP'), a family member of a PEP or a close associate of a PEP. Please refer to Part A Section 1 of the Application Form.

PEP means an individual:

1. who holds a prominent public position or function in a government body or an international organisation, including:
 - a. Head of State or head of a country or government; or
 - b. government minister or equivalent senior politician; or
 - c. senior government official; or

Information about investors that are foreign tax residents must be reported to the Australian Tax Office (ATO) in accordance with international tax reporting standards and laws to which Australia is subject. These include the OECD Common Reporting Standard (CRS) and United States Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA). If you require further information on Australia's obligations under CRS or FATCA, please visit the ATO website www.ato.gov.au

Tax Residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is a tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on their domicile, place of management, principal office or incorporation, the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia or a Social Security Number in the US. If a TIN is not provided, please list the reason (of the of the three reasons specified as A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.

You do not need to complete this section if you are a Regulated Australian Super Fund.
